Kinsman was a witness in a road accident at Londiani Town on his way to Nairobi from Bungoma County. The accident claimed the lives of 48 people. The accident occurred when the lorry carrying a shipping container veered off the road and plunged into other several vehicles.

“I saw a speeding oncoming trailer. I swerved and escaped hitting it head-on. The person who was behind me didn’t notice the oncoming speeding trailer. Therefore, he overtook me and that is when he was hit. The trailer went off the road and hit other vehicles,” said Kinsman.

“I saw about 20 dead bodies with my own eyes. Some of the dead bodies were under the vehicle, others were scattered on the roadside.” Kinsman added.

The incident is still fresh in Kinsman’s mind and requires urgent psychosocial counseling whereby he has been referred to a workplace place counselor for psychosocial support.
